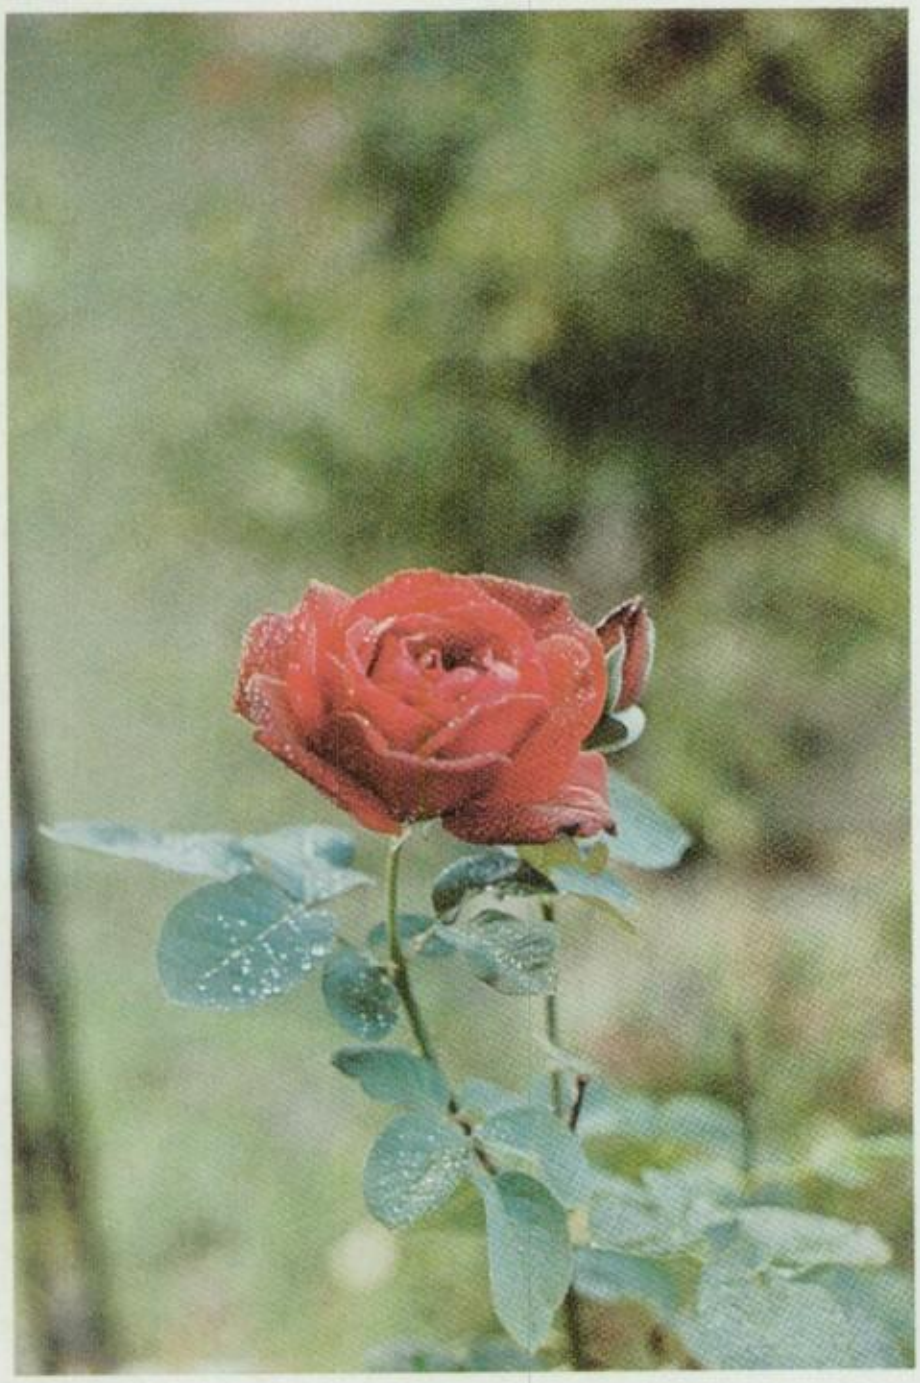
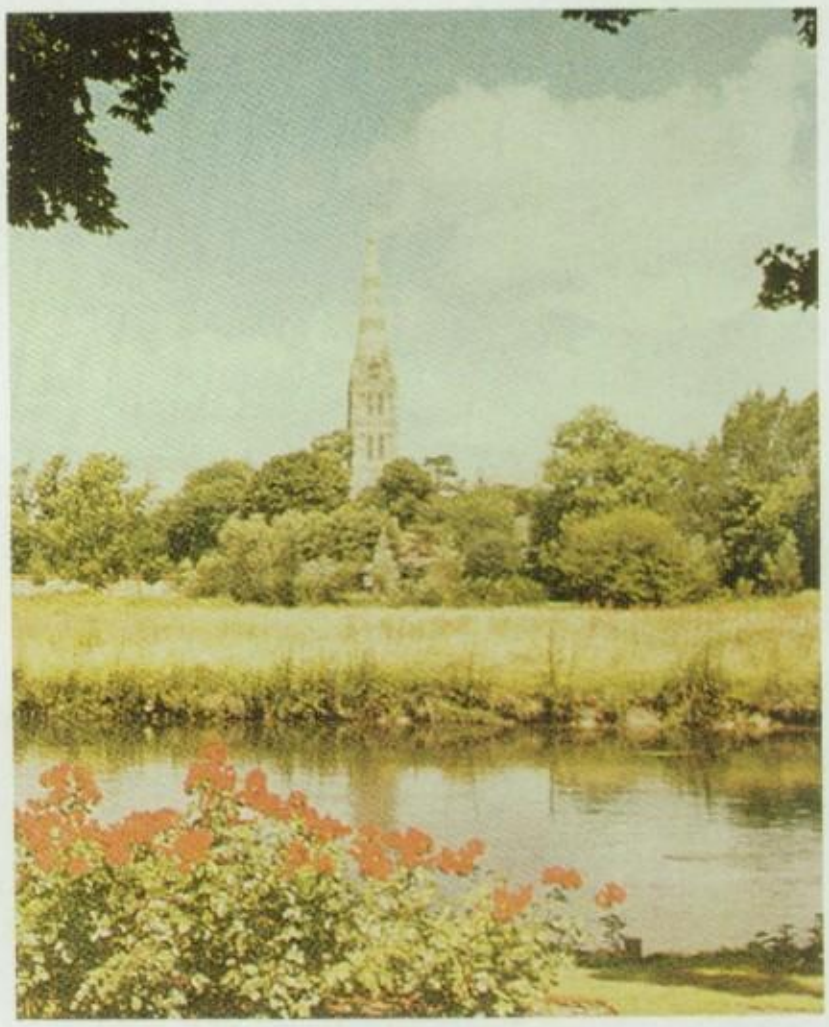
MEMENTO

1984 LIBERTY MEMENTO



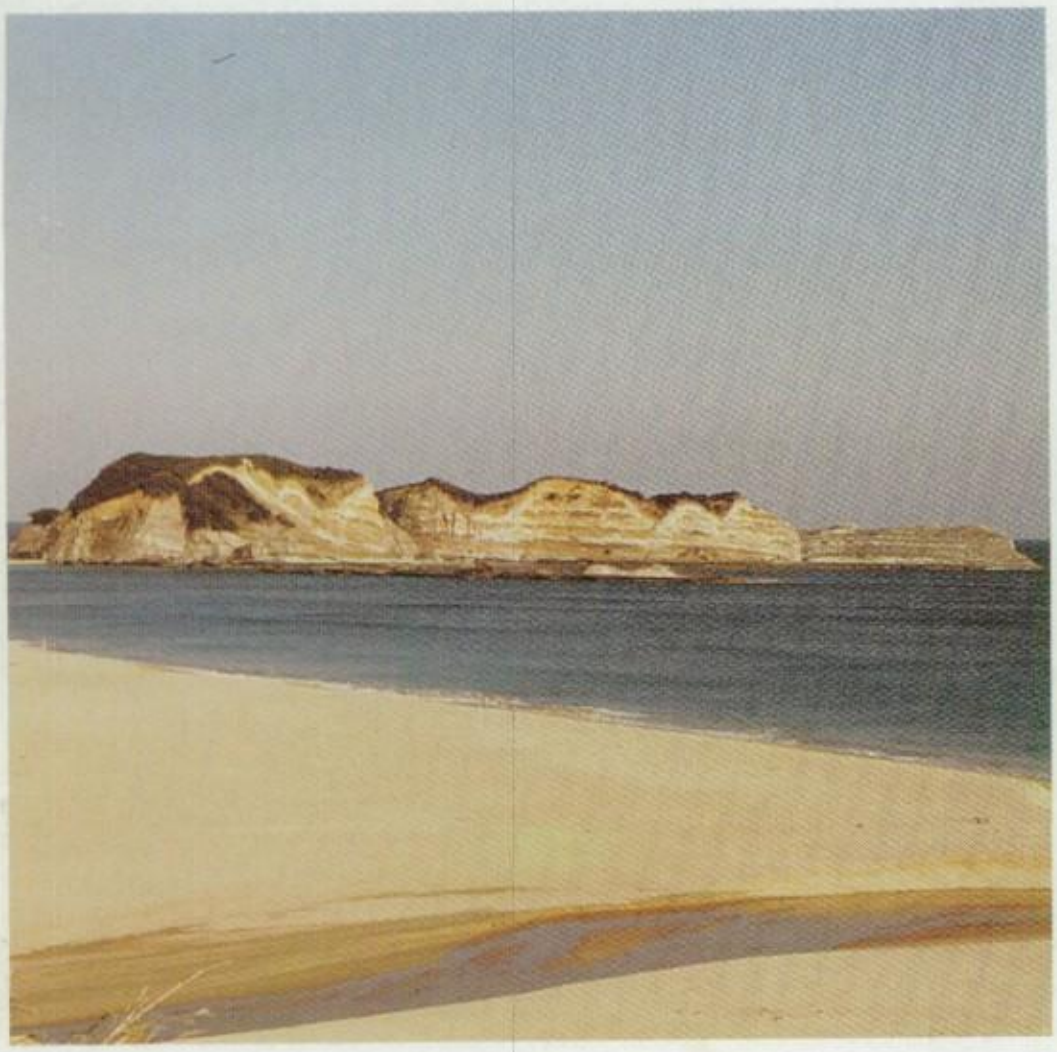
Psalm 145:10, 11

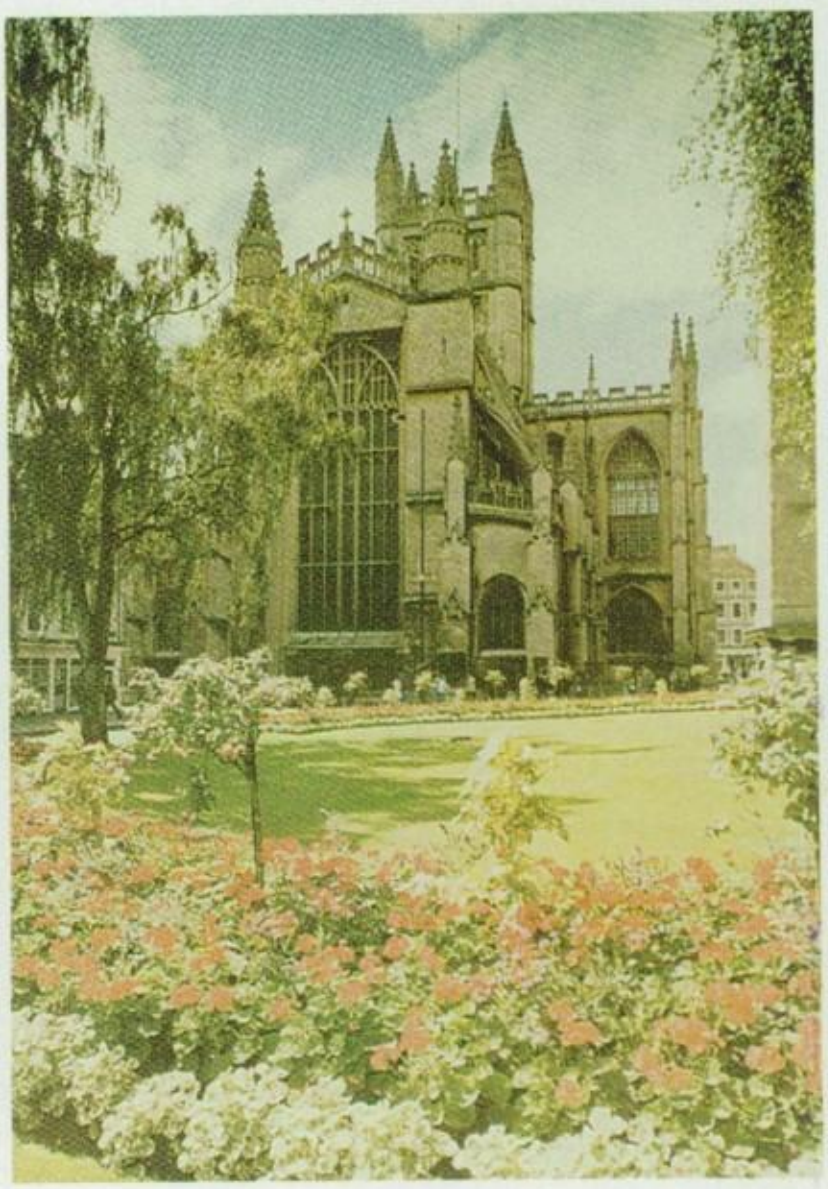
All thy works shall praise thee, O Lord; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;



Isaiah 35:1

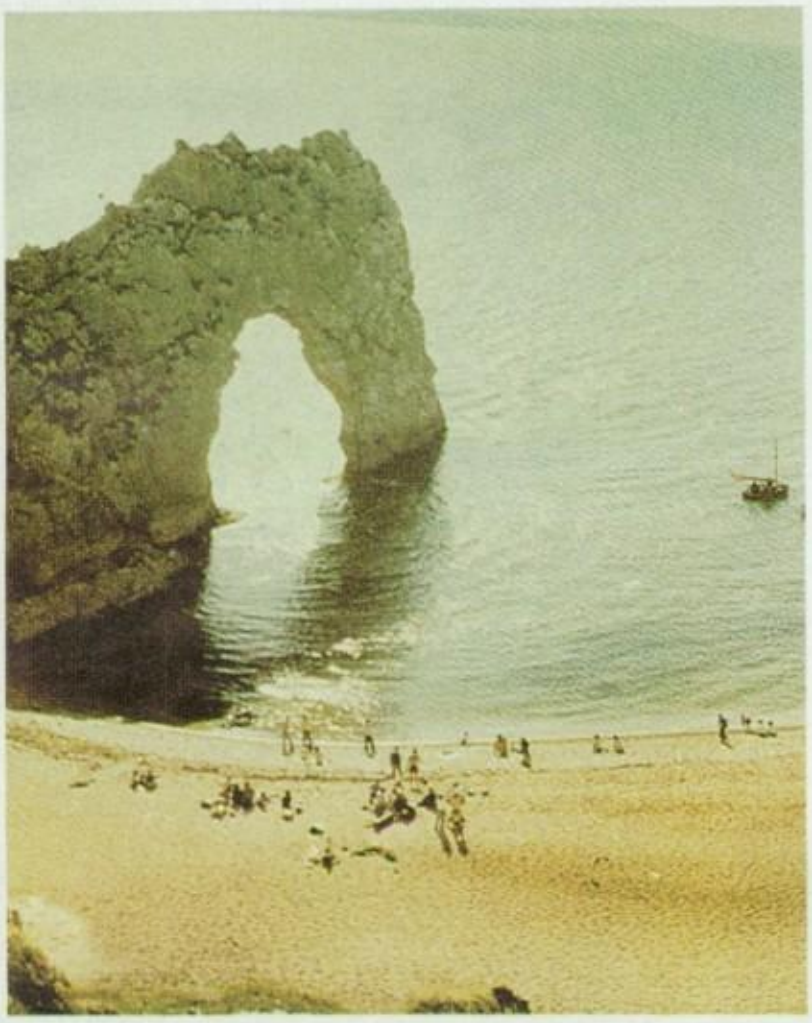
The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them, and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as a rose.

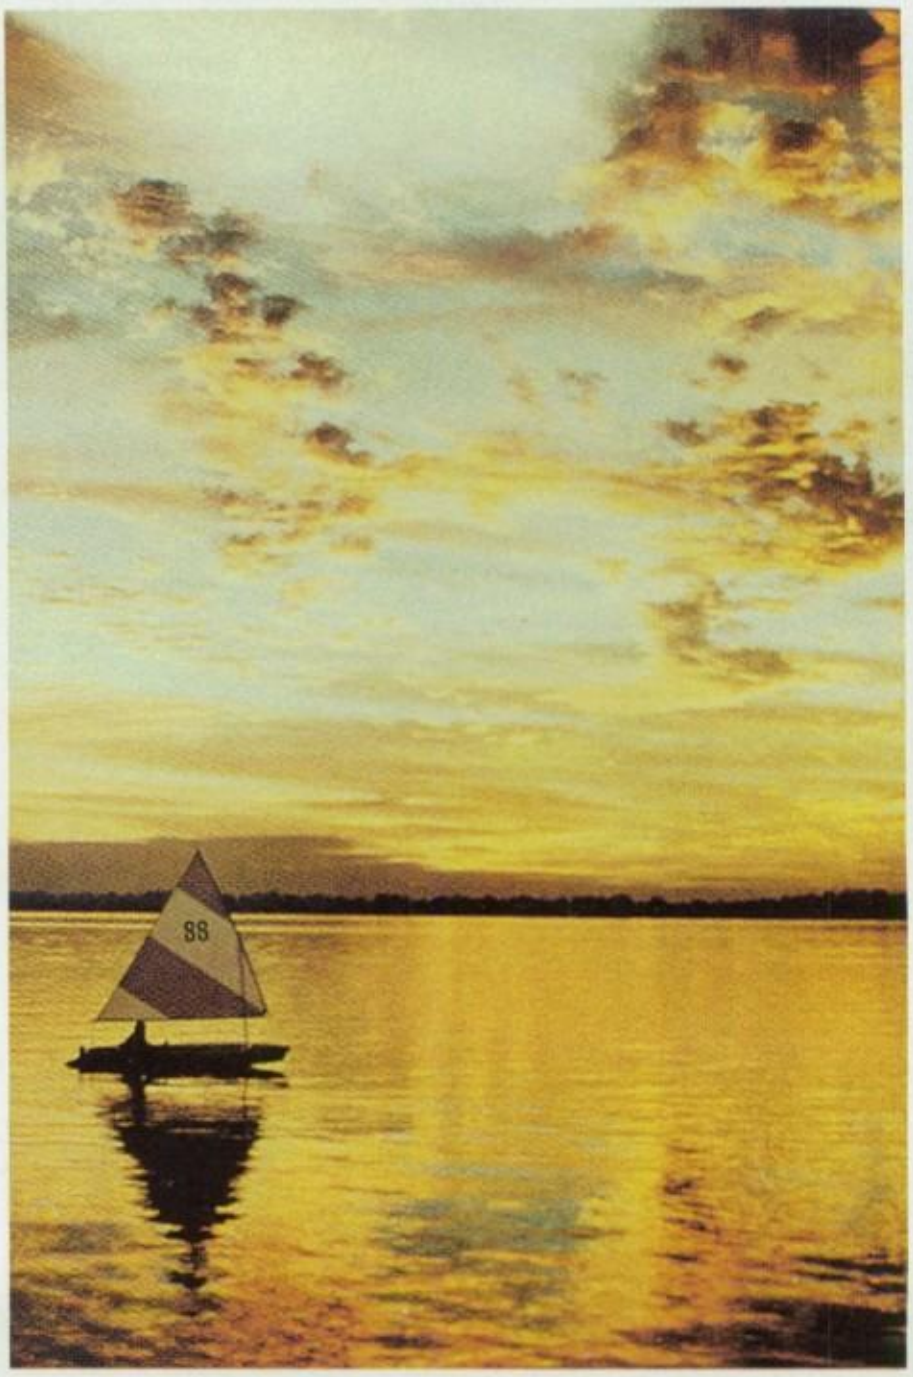




Psalm 18:1-3

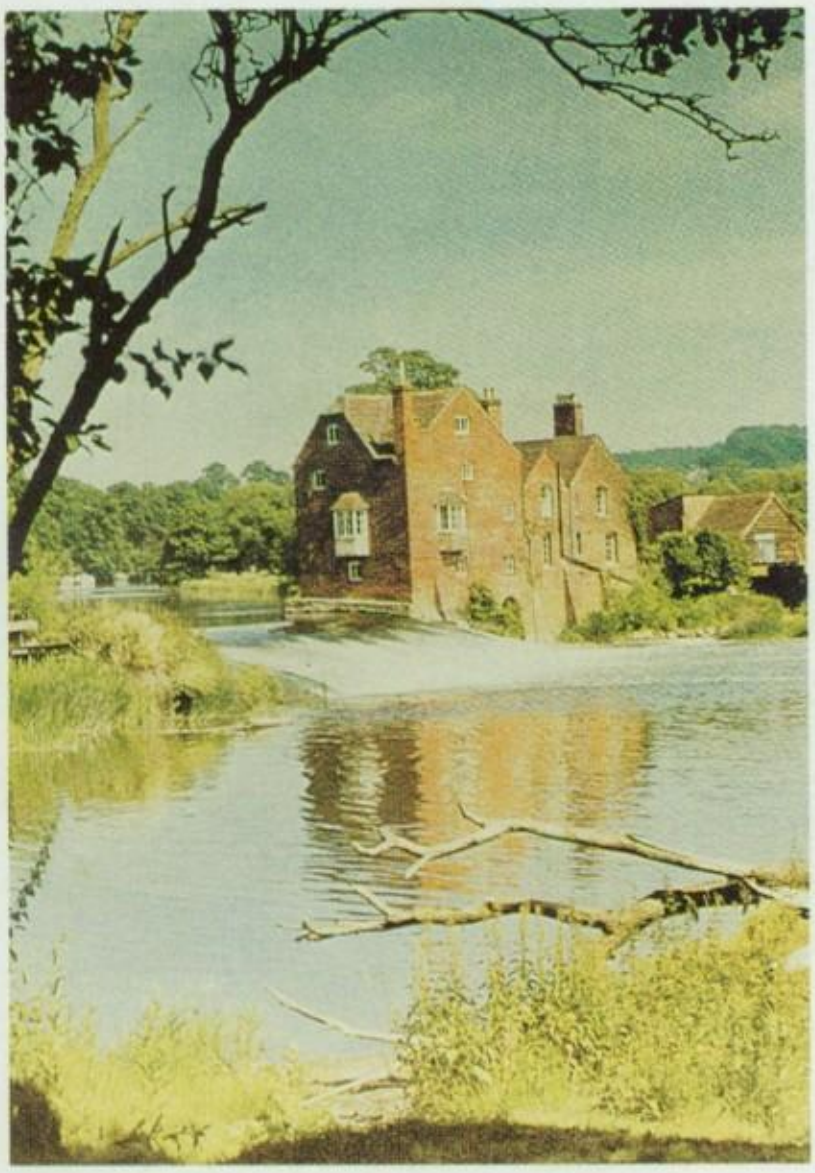
I will love thee, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

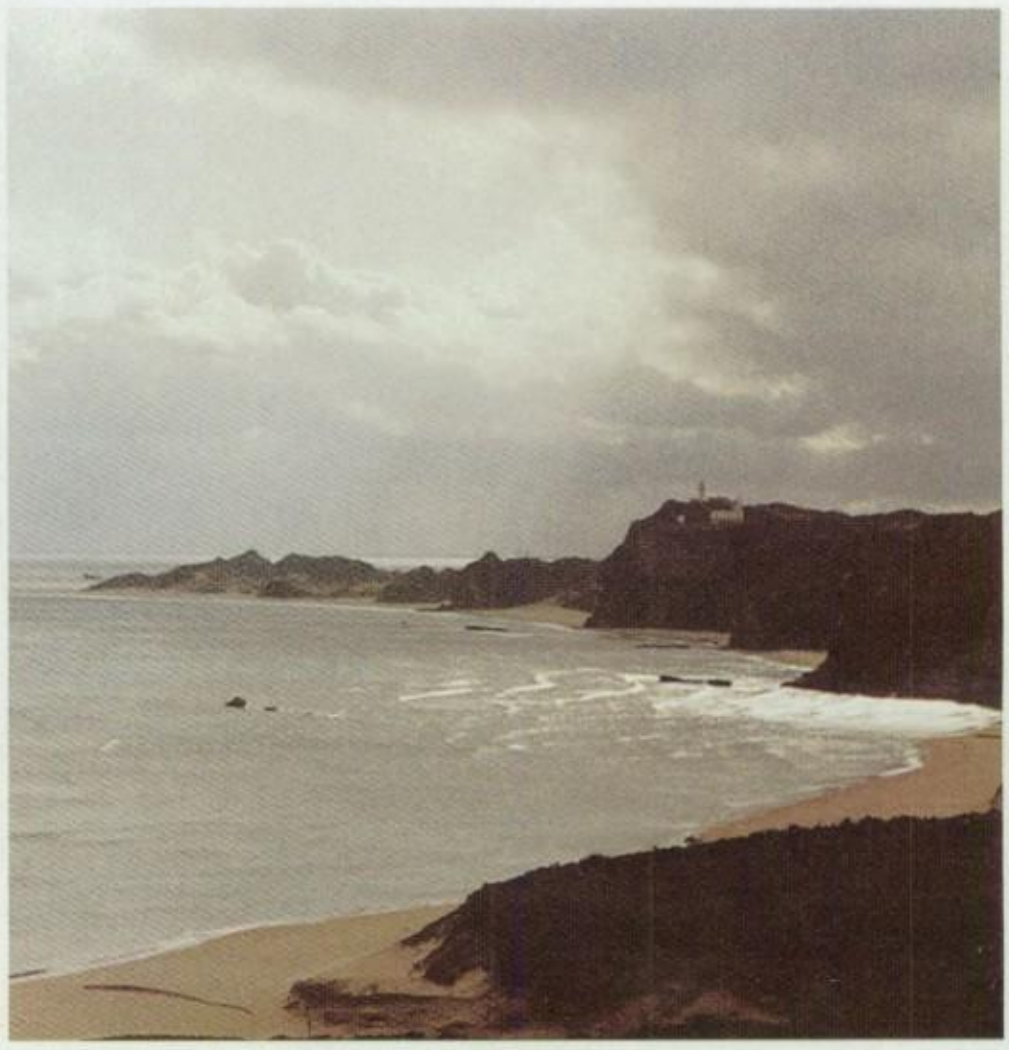


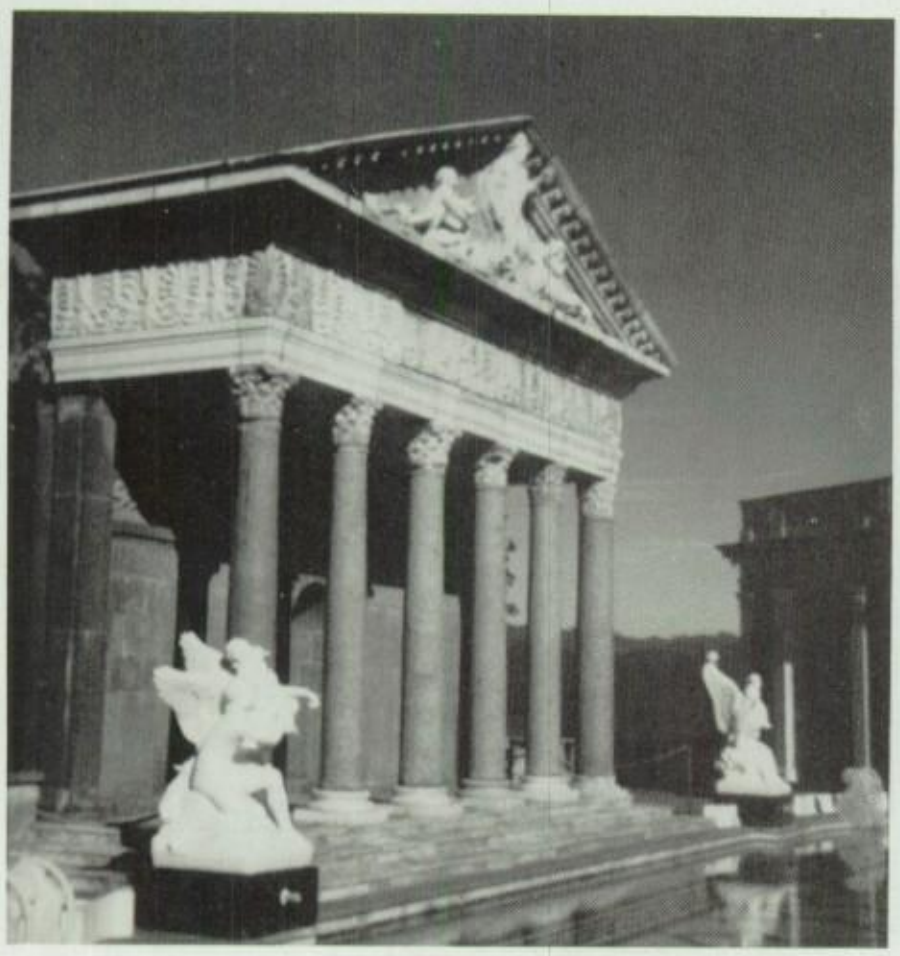


Mark 4:37, 39

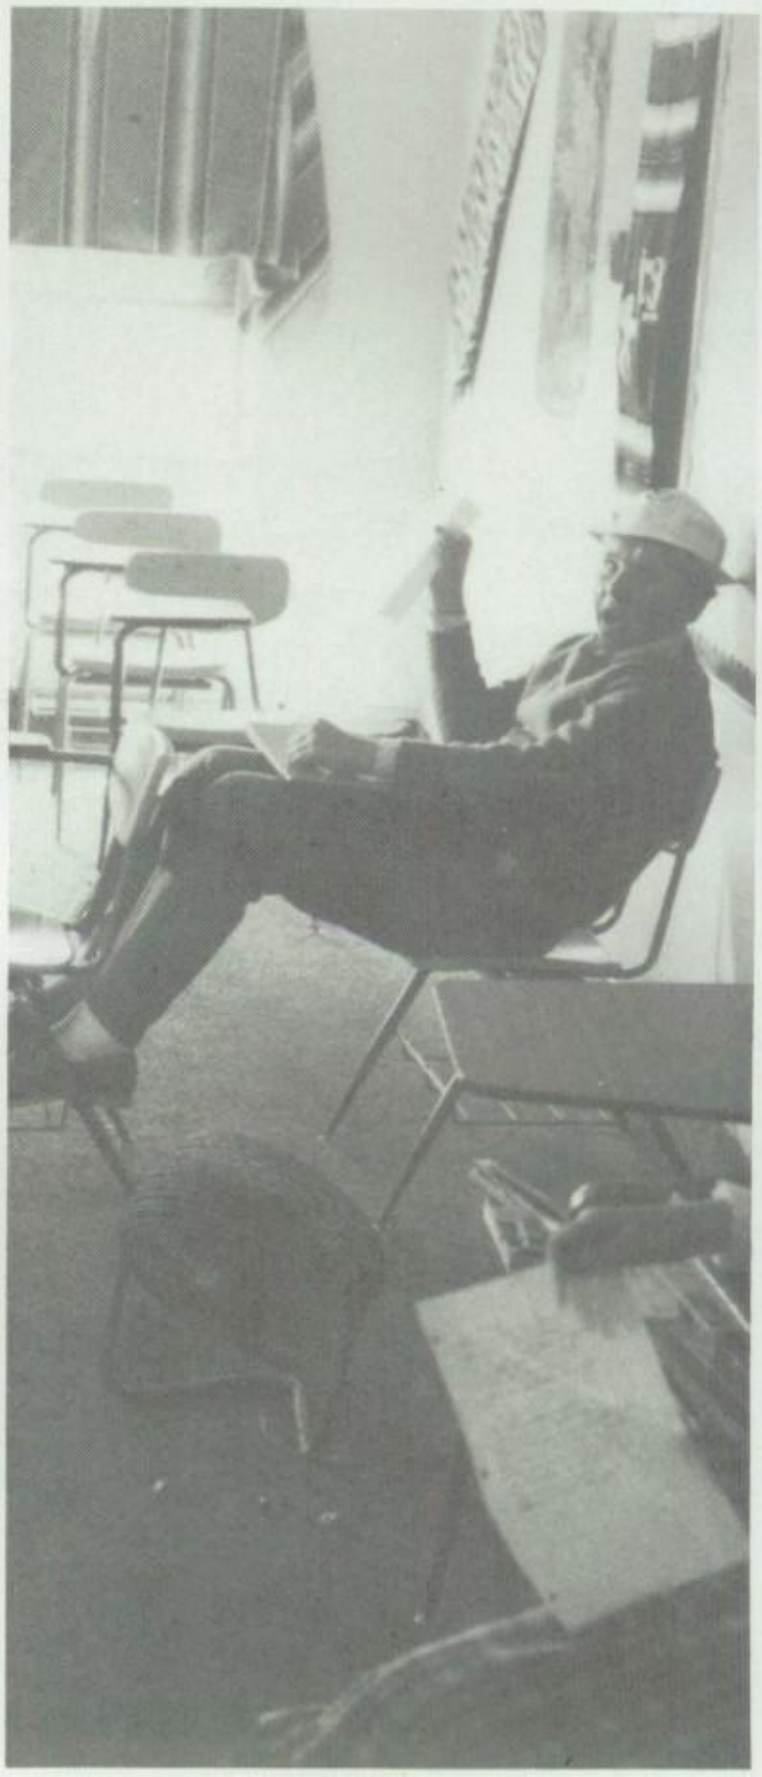
And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, "Peace, be still." And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

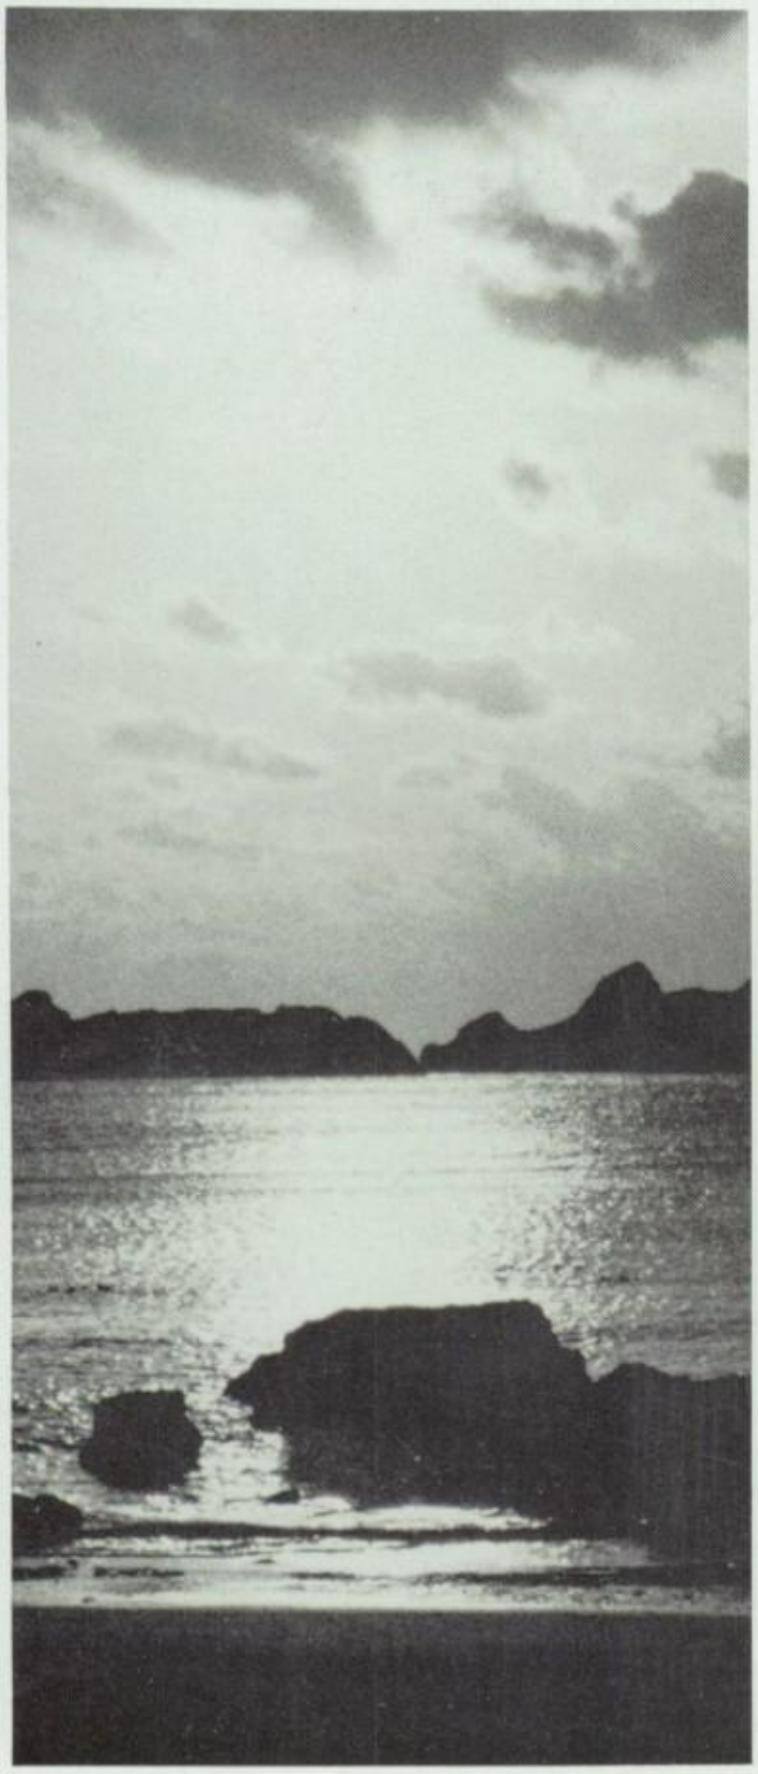


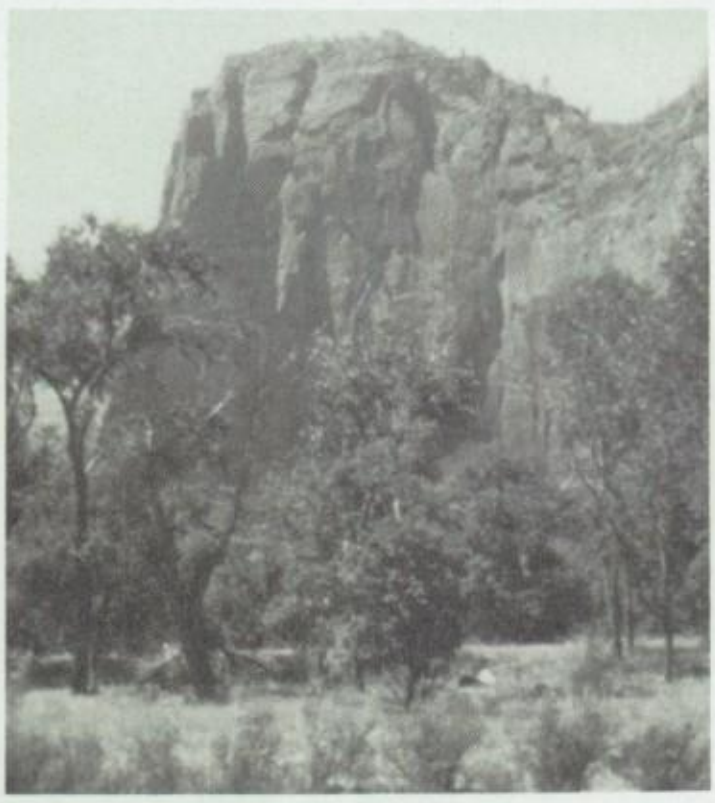




Psalm 25:1-5 Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause. Shew me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.







Psalm 25-6-9 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy loving kindnesses; for they have been ever of old. Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O Lord. Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will he teach sinners in the way. The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

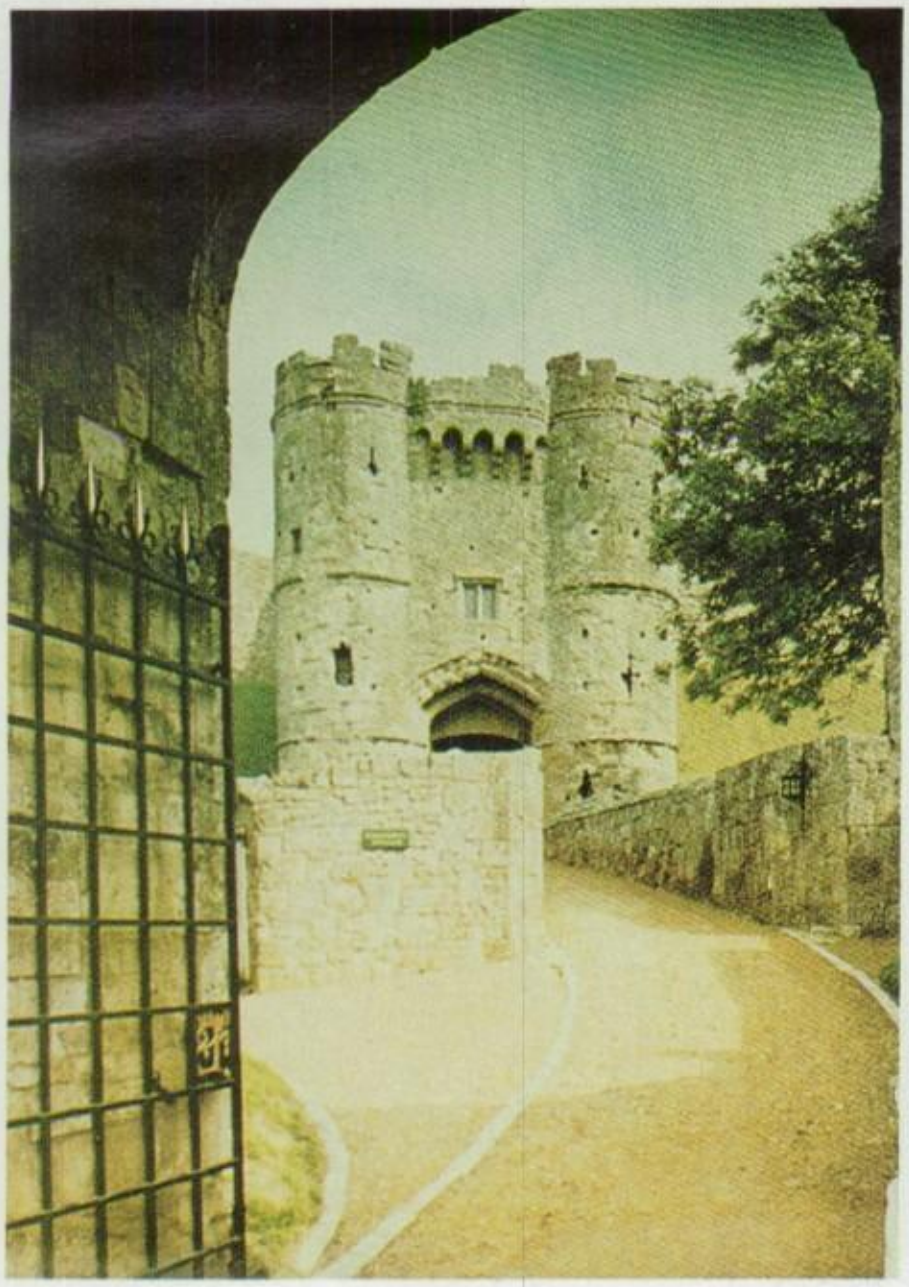
Mountains, and all hills . . . Let them praise the name of the Lord for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

Revelation 22:14

Blessed are they that do his commandments that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.



Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. I Cor. 15:58

When we think of Mrs. Juanita Houston, we think of faithfulness, dedication, and service. For the past ten years Liberty Christian School has had the privilege of having one of its most capable servants in our fourth grade class. She gives of herself unselfishly, eager for her students not only to learn their lessons but for them to know the Lord. Mrs. Houston has distinguished herself in her study and teaching of California History and in the yearly fourth grade trip to Sacramento. This year two of her former students are fellow teachers. She is reaping some of the fruit of her labors. The 1984 Liberty Memento Staff would like to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Juanita Houston in honor of her faithfulness.

Changes In SENIORS

Changes In SENIORS

In spite of the many changes which occurred this year at our school, the members of the Senior Class have stayed the same with the exception of two: Heli Mikkonen and Fidencio Sanabria. Heli and Fidencio are our foreign exchange students this year. Heli, who is from Finland, is involved in Girl's Varsity Volleyball and many other activities. Fidencio, who is from Paraguay, is involved in Boy's Varsity Basketball, among many other activities. We gladly welcome both of them into our school and into the Senior Class.

Changes IN STAFF

One of the many changes that occurred in our school this year was the partial staff changeover. In June of last year we said goodbye to six of our staff members. Among them were: Tanya Edwards, George Johnston, Rober Fritch, Noel Hackworth, Kathi Jennings, and Beverly Martin. This September we welcomed seven new staff members and one return. Among our new staff members are Leigh Ann Lockerbie, Jeannetta Johnson, Jodi Preston, Dan Boegner, David Posthuma, Randy Hicks, Dorothey King, and we welcome back Larry Pryor.

"Watch out Padres, here I come!"

"Come on guys, we're off to the aviary."

Hey Steve, what's cooking?

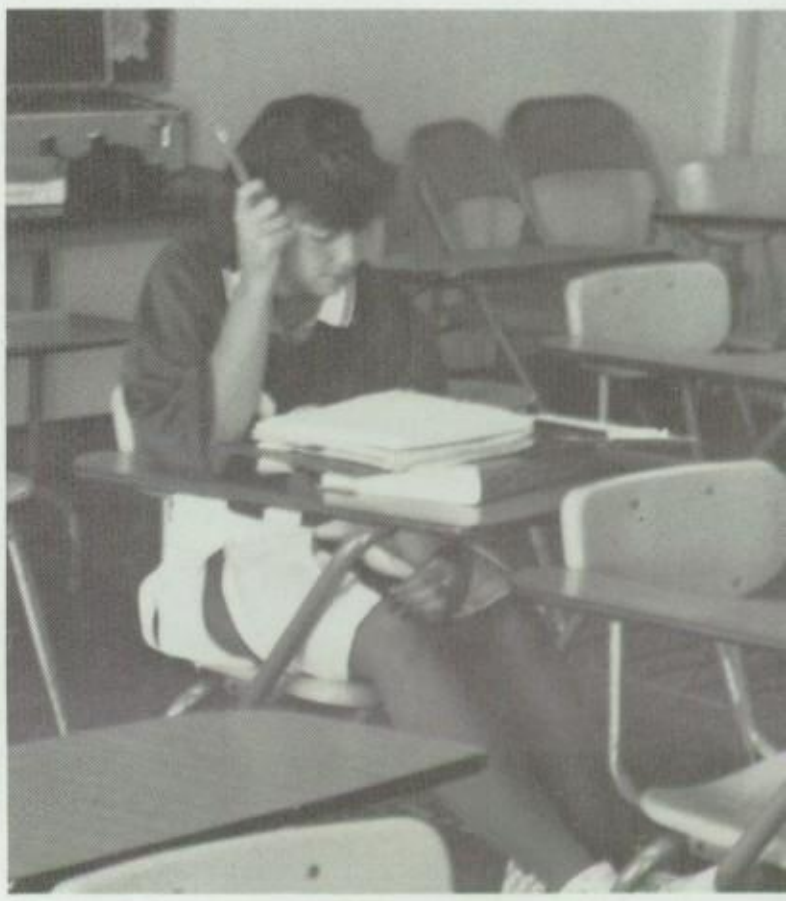
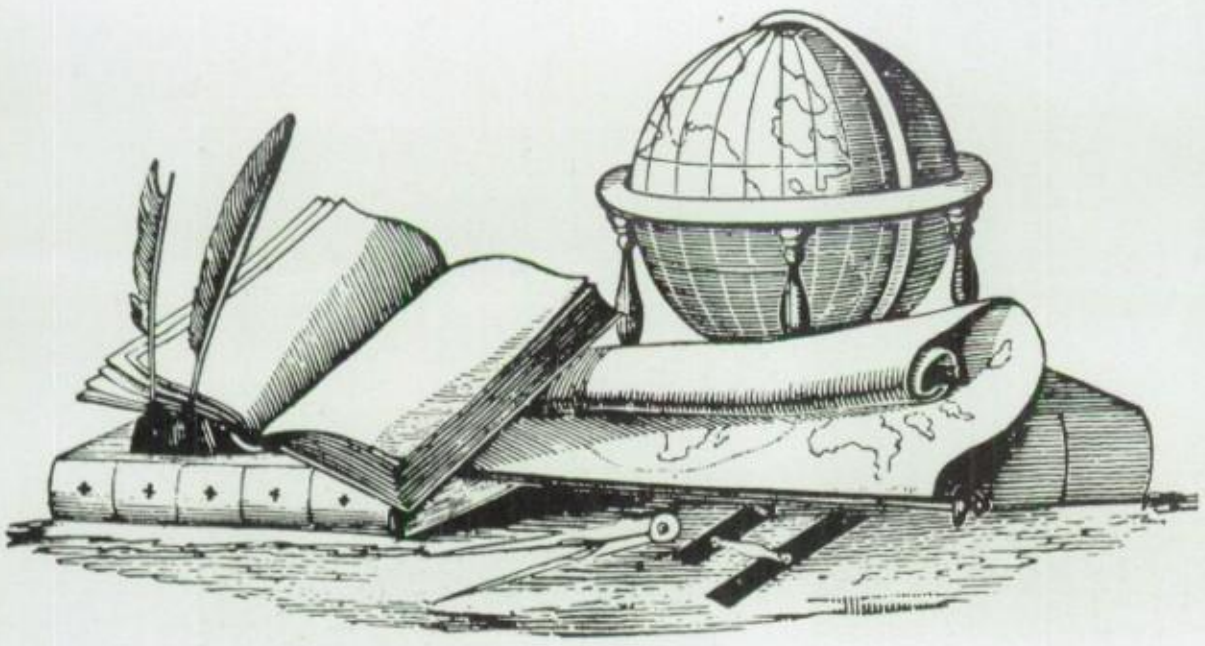
In a modernized world, Liberty has tried to upgrade its college preparatory classes. Among these changes was the addition of an Introduction to Computer Science class. The first seven students to experience the hands-on environment were Kevin Billings, Jerry DeGuzman, Bobby Heath, Richard Meyer, Glenn Stewart, Charlie Payne, and Amy Yamamoto. The class is geared for a relaxed environment in which the students take turns programming on the two school computers: the Apple IIe and the Apple II+. As many of the students are beginners on the computer Miss Carter plans to introduce the students to the computer using BASIC. As the semester moves on, she plans to gradually switch over to Apple LOGO, which was originally designed as a language to introduce children to computers, but has grown into one of the most efficient graphics languages available.





ACADEMICS

Also this year. Liberty started a photography class. Mr. Snyder, who has studied photography himself, plans to first introduce the students to photographing and developing, then into advanced techniques such as color slides. The class originated last year with Bret Haney, Andy Bosecker, and Ted Pappas but has not gained full acceptance as a class until this year with six students consisting of: Won Kang, Mindy Kimberling, Mike Wintersole, Greg James, Ron Peregrin, and Kevin Billing.

Some of the many other changes which occurred this year happened in some of our organizations. In an effort to raise crowd spirit at our home games this year, two new groups were formed. The first that was formed was the 1983-84 pep club. The club is all new this year with Leslie McCormick as its leader. Leslie, who happens to be the mascot, has many good ideas for raising spirit and enthusiasm at Liberty Christian this year. The other new group formed this year is a small six piece band, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Burch, Ken Colby, Kelly Griffith, Roger Peregrin, and Kim Engstrom, which is present at our home games also to raise crowd spirit and to keep the beat of the cheerleaders. Liberty warmly welcomes these two new groups into our school and hopes that they will remain for years to come.

Changes In ORGANIZATIONS

This is our first year of an organized "Outdoors Club". It is headed by Mr. Snyder and there are approximately sixteen people involved. They meet on Fridays during the Senior High Lunch period. They go hiking, backpacking, and do other fun things in an attempt to get back to nature.

Student Council has brought about many changes this year, of which include their campus beautiful program. Now that the school is slowly expanding into the Robinwood campus, the student body has been making every attempt to keep the school looking clean. With the help of Dan Boegner, Liberty hopes to be one of the best looking schools in the city.

Changes In ACTIVITIES

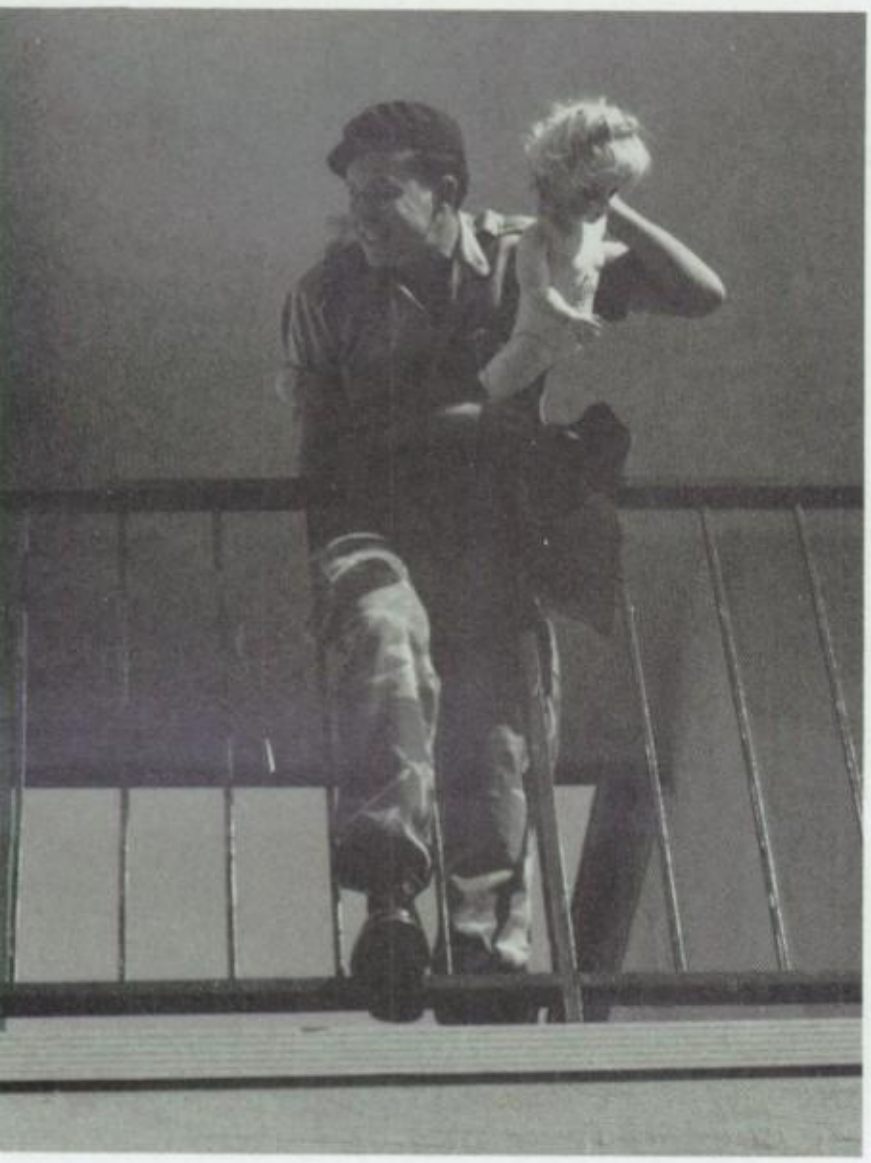
Some of the many activities this year included Spirit Week and Homecoming. Pep-rallies every day, put on by the Senior Class, inflated school spirit. Several of the activities included three-legged basketball games, an obstacle course, popcorn-eating relays and an iron-stomach contest. After trying every trick in the book, the unsuccessful Seniors ultimately yielded to the overzealous Junior Class. Spirit Week drew to a close with the Homecoming Game against the Cal Lutheran C-Hawks.

"Look Ma, no hands!!!"

Clapping hands . . . let the healing begin!

Changes In ACTIVITIES

At the half-time ceremonies the Homecoming Court was introduced. The Freshman representative, Desiree Delano, was escorted by Troy Ladd; Sophomore representative, Christine Jacobson, by Ken Colby; and Junior representative Michelle Smith, by Sam Magill. Senior princesses Karlene Reiff and Chris Stevens were escorted by Tom Ludwick and Jerry DeGuzman. Our 1983 Homecoming Queen, Janet Bergthold, was escorted by Richard Meyer. After the game the Second Annual Homecoming Banquet (which was catered by Torino's and helpful parents) was held at the new Robinwood campus. The evening's festivities included a complete lasagna dinner, a solo by Pegie O'Dowd, a performance by the cheerleaders, and an acknowledgement of the various team members, the Homecoming Queen and her Court.



"Not the balcony . . . On noooooo!"

"Just wait until you see your quarter grade."

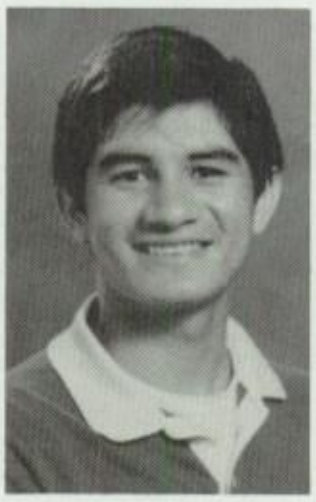
FIDENCIO



Fidencio Sanabria (Denny) came to LCS from Ascuncion, Paraguay and his American host family is the Ludwick's. In his American family Fidencio has two younger brothers, Tom and Jon, and one younger sister.

Fidencio is very involved in school activities and he played on the Varsity Basketball Team. Before coming to LCS, Fidencio played indoor soccer and volleyball. Fidencio's favorite American food is peanut butter-n-jelly sandwiches. When Fidencio returns home in July he plans on finishing up his schooling and working for Price Waterhouse.

HELI

Heli Mikkonen comes to us from Pori, Finland. Heli's American host family is the Mastright's. In Heli's American family she has one younger sister named Summer, but in Finland she has one younger brother and sister.

Heli enjoys spending time with her friends and singing in the school choir. Heli also played on the Junior Varsity Volleyball Team. Her favorite American food is PIZZA! When Heli returns home she will continue her schooling and she plans to get a job.

South Australia. It's our state, mate.

TOM LUDWICK

Tom lived in the city of Kimba in South Australia for ten weeks. He lived in a family of seven people on a farm that was seven miles away from the nearest neighbor. Tom spent much of his free time playing the Australian version of football, which to him seemed much harder. The rest of his free time was spent at barbecues, going hunting for kangaroos, and riding motorcycles. He also got firsthand experience at work on the farm. Tom says that he really enjoyed his stay there and that he would like to return there someday.

Tom takes a moment to hug his Koala Bear.

Kangaroos are so numerous that they are used for target practice.

CLASSES

JUNIORS

This year, the Junior class has worked hard to earn money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. They have sold M & M's and Homecoming mums. They also had a car wash in which they made over one hundred dollars. In December and January they held the most irresistible guy and girl contest. The most irresistible guy contest was more successful than the most irresistible girl contest, but both contests were fun and created alot of school spirit. During Christmas vacation, the Junior class got together for a Christmas dinner at the Red Onion. Afterwards, they boarded a boat and took a cruise around Huntington Harbour to view the Christmas lights. The Junior class officers (below) have done a very good job this past year. They are (standing): Sam Magill, Vice-President; Gerald Mothes, Chaplain. Seated: Michelle Smith, Secretary/Treasurer; Ann Gonzalez, President.

IN MEMORIAM

Vangie Archambeault was a beautiful teacher with a "burden" in her heart. She prayed for, taught, and loved children in order to bring them to the knowledge and love of Jesus Christ. She displayed dignity and tenderheartedness as long as we knew her.

"A teacher affects eternity- she never knows where her influence stops." This was a favorite plaque she displayed in her home and cherished especially because it was given to her by a student not too long ago.

Vangie taught from 1955, in a rural, one-room school house, in North Dakota, till this year at LCS. She taught English as a major subject but she integrated every lesson with the Word of God.

"The Word magnifies the knowledge that penetrates the mind —" she used to say, "like a magnifying glass helps us to see God's intricate designs in nature where we can not see with the eye alone."

LCS will long remember Vangie because of her dedication to God, her love for her family and her "gift" of teaching students communication and writing skills.

She was admired by others for her loving and considerate spirit towards older people, even when she was a small child. She gave unceasingly to her husband Ray, and her son Robert.

Vangie was "saved" at the young age of twelve, and she carried the "burden" of desire to see others know Jesus Christ till her passing on September 11, 1983, when her Lord and Savior called her home.

The Psalms and the Book of Revelation were her favorite Bible readings. Here are a few:

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth were passed away . . . and God shall wipe away all tears and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain . . ."

Revelation 21:1,4

She often wrote to her students, "May God bless you all, as you strive to do his will in all things . . ." (II Timothy 2:15) and then she would challenge them to hide II Timothy 2:15,16 in their hearts.

We love and miss Mrs. Evangeline L. Archambeault, but rejoice in her presence with the Lord. We shall see her again in Glory.

TIME CAPSULE

Somehow, we made it! For many of us, we made it together. Remember the good times? Remembers the bad times? We could; so let's look back at the events which shaped our lives.

Following the annual school picnic, we were sobered by the death of Mrs. Archambeault, a fine teacher who passed away on September 11: the day before opening day of school.

As school opened, all student's found that there were no more Kindergarteners to trip over. The school had expanded into the Robinwood Campus on McFadden Avenue, which has become useful for such events as the Homecoming Banquet, the Valentine's Banquet, and the St. Patrick's Day Talent Show.

It seemed like business started almost immediately. The Seniors were off and running towards houseboating with the sale of seat cushions; while the Juniors were working towards the Disneyland Hotel with their bake sale.

As Spiritual Emphasis Week began, the Seniors were taken to breakfast at Coco's by Mr. Stephens. The Spiritual Emphasis Week speaker was Jerry Johnston who ended the week by having a City-wide Pizza Blast.

As the year moved on, the Pryor's realized the blessing of Baby Chad, as our football season culminated in Spirit Week, the first leg of Mr. Stephens' school spirit crusade. The school was shocked to hear that the Juniors had won the Spirit Week Activities, despite the efforts of the Senior class. Spirit Week ended as Janet Bergthold was crowned Homecoming Queen during the gala, half-time ceremonies of the Homecoming game.

November brought about many changes: the first snow fell (finally) and break dancing hit the scene as Flashdance rolled in the bucks. The Seniors, trying to decide where to have their Graduation Banquet, began to sell hamburgers; while the Juniors, changing their mind to either the Grand Hotel or the Marriott Hotel, sell M&M's. A few names changed as C.B. is murdered by Topher with the help of J.D.; and the school is burglarized . . . how many times? Mr. Archambeault uses the Memorial Fund to buy two Apple computers for the school.

The Heaths were a big topic this year. As Denise hit the thrift stores, Bobby was out at Senior Lunch getting warning tickets from Mr. Swan. The rest of us? Well — we were just here, hearing the weather report from Room 12.

As students looked forward to being "released" on the "outside world" for two weeks, the "outside world" was not ready for us. Politically, the country was in bad shape. With the presidential elections coming up, Watt resigned from office. Jesse Jackson was off to Syria, and America fell into the Grenada and Lebanon incidents. Meanwhile, back on the home front, the West coast, just recovering from El Niño, watches as the East freezes over; Ethel Merman, Jackie Coogan, and William Powell passed away; and the first free flight space walk takes place. Andropov dropped off (it must have been the killer ducks); and Bell Telephone splits.

As school reconvened, an excitement filled the air with the up-and-coming basketball season. Wilbur arrived on campus with his girlfriend Emily to help the basketball teams; while Dave Coopman embarrassingly split his shorts during the Capo game. The school was held captive by Dr. Bob's chemical warfare.

January brought in many perplexing questions: Are the Seniors going to Yosemite, San Diego, or the Channel Islands? Are the Juniors having their banquet at the Anaheim Sheraton or Tibby's? and Where's the beef? Along with these questions, January brought in the 1984 Winter Olympics held in Sarajevo.

With February came the Valentine's festivities. It started early in the month with the "Most Irresistible" contests: our "most irristible girl" was Kari Hines. "An eventful evening" could best describe the "Valentine's Banquet which took place on February 14th hosted by the Senior class. Richard Meyer was crowned Valentine's King; and, among other highlights, Mrs. Burch announced that she was pregnant; speaking of which, Princess Diana is pregnant again.

Fourth period Chemistry class was a special blessing to Richard Tejidor as he realized that a heated piece of metal (compliments of Brandon Whitney) not only burns through socks but also skin. Basketball season was wrapped up with the basketball team having their annual car wash.

Even though we didn't have Michael Jackson, who received eight Grammys, visit the campus; we did have Chuck E. Cheese.

An All School Skate, the beginning of baseball season, and Leap Day rounded out February. Supposedly, Miss Neighbors took advantage of Leap Year with Steve Garvey (good going, Miss Neighbors).

March took off with the highlight of the year: Glenn recieved a singing telegram in Chemistry; and the yearbook staff introduced their sweatshirt sale. While the Seniors were off to lunch or learning about Wycliffe with Loana, the rest of the high school was at the lunch tables being buffeted by sonic booms off of Mr. Posthuma's guitar.

The Girls' Ensemble was in Pasadena for two days for a concert, while the rest of us were here discovering that beer causes rectal cancer. Other highlights of March were the baseball team's trip to Catalina, Richard ruining a roll of Charles' film, the Juniors' trip to Family Feud, Spanish II's trip to Olvera Street, the fourth grade's trip to San Juan Capistrano, the Booster Club Pancake Breakfast, the championship by almost every Junior High sports team, and AFS Day.

So, that was our year, how much did you remember? We thought the last two months went the fastest, so we saved the best for last . . .

The Juniors had their Junior/Senior Banquet at Elizabeth Howard's. The Seniors went to Lake Arrowhead for their trip. The Sports Banquet was held at the Anaheim Sheraton. The Eighth Grade went on a trip to Washington, and the Fourth Grade went to Sacramento.

Then we came down to finals week; and, finally, last day. After graduation, the Seniors had their banquet at the Golden Sails Inn.

This year, through the good times and bad, we finally made it. We had to build each other up, to trust each other, and just to be there for each other. Thanks for the memories; don't forget us, we won't forget you.
